

Technology Libraries Team at the Engineering Department &

WEST HUB

MICHAELMAS TRAINING PROGRAMME

20th October

Cambridge Library Basics

An introduction to libraries at Cambridge and how to find what you need from them both online and in print.

27th October, 1st* & 16th November
Referencing 101

Perfect for anyone who needs to get started with, or wants a refresher of referencing from the first steps.

4th, 8th, 10th* & 28th November
Time Smart

Perfect for anyone looking for new ideas to help manage their time across work, study and life.

21st & 30th November

Finding What You Need

The first steps you need to plan and do a literature search using a range of methods and sources.

24th November
Present Like a Pro

Perfect for anyone who needs to give an in person presentation as part of their work or study.

Open to all. Booking not essential for events run at the West Hub.
To find out more and guarantee your place see the full programme of events training.cam.ac.uk/eng/Event-timetable.

*booking required for sessions running at the Engineering Department. These sessions will be open to members of the University of Cambridge only.